Grade-point average

Spell out “grade-point average” on first mention in text. Abbreviate (GPA) in subsequent references. [UI]

Measure, units of

Do not abbreviate units of measure in text. They may be abbreviated in lists, depending on context and/or graphic design. [AP], [UI]

She bought one quart of milk. (Not: ...one qt. of milk.)

Dewey is three feet tall. (Not: ...three ft. tall.)

Months

In text, write out names of months not accompanied by a day number.

The family goes camping each year in October.

The building will be completed in November 2002.

In text, abbreviate names of months accompanied by day number; some months (March, April, May, June, July) are not abbreviated. [AP]

Jan. 7	Feb. 28	March 21	April 24
May 9	June 6	July 4	Aug. 31
Sept. 17	Oct. 25	Nov. 11	Dec. 31

Other abbreviation systems for month names may be used in certain formats (e.g., calendars, display type, lists). For exceptional cases, CMS 15.42 provides three abbreviation systems for month names; choose one system and use it consistently (for calendars, display type, lists, etc.) throughout a document or publication.

Names of agencies, organizations

Commonly recognized abbreviations for government agencies and other organizations may be used after a first spelled-out reference. Such abbreviations should appear capitalized, unspaced, and without periods. [AP]

AMA	DOT	NASA	NSF
-----	-----	------	-----

Names of cities: Fort, Mount, Port, Saint

Do not abbreviate “Fort,” “Mount,” or “Port” in city names. Saint may be written out or abbreviated. [AP]

Fort Madison (Not: Ft. Madison)	Saint Louis
Mount Vernon (Not: Mt. Vernon)	St. Louis
Port Angeles (Not: Pt. Angeles)

Names of companies

Abbreviations commonly used at the end of company names (e.g., Corp., Inc., Ltd.) may be used in text. Do not insert a comma before the abbreviation. For “LLC,” follow the company’s own comma usage. [AP], [UI]

ACT Inc.	Lucasfilm Ltd.	Microsoft Corp.	Pfizer Inc.
----------	----------------	-----------------	-------------

Names of people

On second and subsequent references, use only surnames. [AP]

When using initials instead of names in text, close up all initials [AP]. Use a space between the last initial and the last name. Follow initials with periods.

W.L. Green G.B.S. White

Exception: When using initials for someone who is well known by initials alone, do not use periods. [UI]

FDR JFK MLK (Not: MLK Jr.)

Names of people: Jr., Sr., II

The abbreviations Jr., Sr., II, III, and IV are used only with a complete name and are not preceded by a comma [AP].

Hal Brown Sr. Robert Belson II
Jim McGraw Jr. But: Professor Belson

Names of those with doctoral degrees

Because Iowa is both an academic institution and a medical center, avoid using “Doctor X” or “Dr. X.” Refraining from the use of these constructions prevents confusion between MDs, PhDs, and those who hold other types of doctoral degree. It also minimizes unnecessary repetition in documents that include references to a large number of people who hold such degrees.

Instead, include a brief aside describing the subject’s credentials.

Smith, who earned a PhD in astrophysics from the University of Arkansas . . .
Jones, a cardiologist at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics . . .

[UI]

States and territories

Spell out state and territory names in the body text of a story or other publication. [AP]

She moved from Tennessee to New York.
He lives in Mississippi.
They traveled to Puerto Rico.
The meeting was in Moline, Illinois.

Exception: When the state name in text is followed by a zip code as part of an address, use the two-letter uppercase U.S. Postal Service state abbreviation. [AP]

Send the application to Acme Hiring, 442 Elixir Avenue, Des Moines, IA 50310.

Avoid using abbreviated state names in headlines, but when it is necessary, use U.S. Postal Service abbreviations. [UI]

Here are state and territory names with their traditional and U.S. Postal Service abbreviations. [AP]

Teacher Education Program

Teacher Education Program (referring to the UI College of Education Teacher Education Program) should be written out on first reference but may be abbreviated TEP in subsequent mentions. [UI]

The University of Iowa

Refer to the University of Iowa on first reference, and as “Iowa” for subsequent references. If doing so may lead to confusion between the university and the state, use “the UI” (not “U of I”). Use sparingly as adjective. Do not capitalize “university” if standing alone, and only capitalize “the” in “the University of Iowa” if it is at the beginning of a sentence.[UI]

The University of Iowa has 11 colleges.

Iowa has a world-renowned space-science program.

There are three public universities in Iowa; the UI has 11 colleges.

The university’s mascot is named Herky.

Time: a.m. and p.m.

The abbreviations “a.m.” and “p.m.” are lowercase with periods and no space between letters. There should be a single space between “a.m.” or “p.m.” and the numeral that precedes them.

6 a.m.

10 p.m.

In display type, tabular material, or lists, “a.m.”/“p.m.” style may vary depending on graphic design. For example, small caps may be used, or the periods may be deleted. [UI]

United States

Unlike in Chicago style, the noun “United States” may be abbreviated, with periods (U.S.). Omit these periods in headlines. [AP]

Academic degrees

Use “a” instead of “the” (or “his” or “her” or “their”) before full or shortened degree titles.

Do not add “degree” after the full name of a degree or after the shortened term “doctorate.”

He earned a Bachelor of Science in statistics at the University of Iowa.
(Not: He earned the Bachelor of Science in statistics at the University of Iowa.)
(Not: He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in statistics at the University of Iowa.)

She earned a master’s degree in economics.
(Not: She earned the master’s degree in economics.)
(Not: She earned her master’s degree in economics.)

They all earned master’s degrees. (Not: They all earned their master’s degrees.)

But: She was proud of her Master of Fine Arts. Their master’s degrees helped them get better jobs.

When writing about UI alumni in text, state which degree the subject earned (with major, if applicable) and the year in which the degree was granted. [UI]

Jones earned a Bachelor of Arts in anthropology in 2008, then enrolled in law school.

Jones earned a BA in anthropology in 2008, then enrolled in law school.

In certain text formats (e.g., news briefs, alumni notes), the degree/year information may follow the subject’s name in parentheses. Other completed work, such as a medical residency, may be stated in the same format. [UI]

Brenda Jones (BA anthropology ’08) was named editor of the Iowa Law Review for 2010–11.

Sam Smith (MD ’93, residency ’94) has been appointed to an administrative position at NIH.

Abbreviation

Abbreviations of academic degrees should appear capitalized, unspaced, and without periods. [UI]

They may be used without the word “degree” added after the abbreviations, depending on context.

BA	MA	PhD	MAc
BS	MS	DDS	PharmD
BFA	MFA	LLM	AA

Capitalization

Capitalize formal degree titles. Lowercase informal degree titles.

Associate of Arts	associate’s degree
Bachelor of Science	bachelor’s degree/baccalaureate
Bachelor of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Business Administration
Master of Arts	master’s degree
Master of Public Health

Academic sessions

The university is almost always in session. In addition to the fall and spring semesters, the university offers a winter session and multiple summer sessions. The winter session begins in late December and ends just before the spring semester begins (in mid-January). See the Office of the Registrar's explanation of academic calendar principles for more information.

The following are the correct terms for the university's academic sessions.

- fall semester
- winter session (not "intercession" or "intersession")
- spring semester
- summer session(s) (general reference to summer sessions)
- four-week summer sub-session
- six-week I summer sub-session
- six-week II summer sub-session
- eight-week summer sub-session
- twelve-week summer sub-session

[UI]

Agreement: Subject/verb/pronoun

Subjects and verbs must agree as to number (singular or plural). Be sure to identify the correct noun as the subject of a clause or sentence to pair with the verb. Subjects are not found in prepositional phrases.

Pronouns and possessive pronouns must agree (gender and number) with their antecedent nouns.

Note: The University of Iowa uses they/their as singular possessive pronouns when the gender of a subject is unspecified, though writing around this situation is recommended whenever possible.

A student can take their class notes to the tutoring session.

Can become

Students can take their class notes to the tutoring session.

Collective (mass) nouns

Collective, or mass, nouns refer to aggregations of people or things (team, majority), as well as to things that are uncountable and abstract (courage, evidence).

American English treats most collective nouns as singular (requiring a singular verb and singular pronouns). But depending on usage, collective nouns may be treated as plural (with a plural verb and plural pronouns). If the collective noun refers to an entity acting as a whole, treat it as singular. If it refers to a group or two or more acting in individual ways, treat it as plural.

The majority is in control, and it has spoken. (Collective noun "majority" with singular verb "is" and singular pronoun "it.")

The majority of the magazine's writers are freelancers; they are always interested in new projects. (Collective noun "majority" with plural verb "are" and plural pronoun "they.")

The couple was married on June 15. (Collective noun "couple" with singular verb "was.")

The couple will celebrate their anniversary on June 16 this year, even though they were married on the 15th. (Collective noun "couple" with plural possessive pronoun "their," plural pronoun "they," and plural verb "were married.")

Treat a collective noun consistently (singular or plural) throughout a document. Rewrite to avoid nonagreement.

[CMS 5.8, 5.47, 5.52]

Collective nouns “group,” “number,” “percentage”

Generally, “a group,” “a number,” and “a percentage” are treated as plural; “the group,” “the number,” and “the percentage” are treated as singular. [CMS online Q&A]

A group of demonstrators are gathering on the Pentacrest to show their opposition to the war.
(Collective “A group” with plural verb “are gathering” and plural possessive pronoun “their.”)

The group of demonstrators has gathered on the Pentacrest for its rally.
(Collective “The group” with singular verb “has gathered” and singular possessive pronoun “its.”)

The number of loan defaults has risen [singular] dramatically over the past year.

A growing number of borrowers are defaulting [plural] on their loans.

The high percentage of the successful graduates shows [singular] that the program is effective.

A high percentage of the program’s students have [plural] job offers before they graduate.

Collective nouns: sports teams

Names of sports teams are treated as plural. Geographic references to teams are treated as singular.

The Cardinals are leading the league. But: St. Louis is leading the league.

The Hawkeyes are ahead at the half. But: Iowa is ahead at the half.

[AP]

Collective nouns as UI unit names

University unit names that are collective compound nouns require singular pronouns and verbs. Rewrite to avoid confusing usage.

University of Iowa Hospitals & Clinics is the largest medical center in Iowa. It is located on the university’s health science campus.

University of Iowa Libraries includes all libraries on the University of Iowa campus, except the Law Library. The libraries’ catalog is available online.

The Iowa Women’s Archives is located in the Main Library.

[UI]

Pronouns, possessive pronouns

Use a plural pronoun (e.g., they, them) or plural possessive pronoun (e.g., theirs) to refer to a singular subject when the gender of the subject is unspecified, but avoid the situation when possible.

Before a student registers for classes, they should consult an advisor.
(Rewrite: Before students register for classes, they should consult an advisor.)

Find out who lost this and return it to them.
(Rewrite: Find out who lost this and return it.)

Any student who needs to drop a class must submit a form to their advisor.
(Rewrite: Students who need to drop a class must submit a form to their advisors.)

Alumnus/alumna; alumni/alumnae

Use the form of “alumnus” that is appropriate to gender and number.

- alumna (female singular)
- alumnus (male singular)
- alumnae (female plural)
- alumni (male plural or mixed male and female plural)

Bias in language

Avoid usage with built-in biases. The University of Iowa strives to create and sustain an equitable and inclusive campus environment for all faculty, staff, and students. The ways in which we communicate with and speak to each other, within the state of Iowa, and beyond, sets the standard for the inclusiveness we aspire to.

Faculty and staff from across the UI campus have created this Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Style Guide that attempts to answer common questions and provide thoughtful guidance on topics that may arise when creating or editing content. The Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Style Guide offers guidance on:

- Women, men, nonbinary genders, and people who don't identify as a specific gender
- People of various races and ethnicities, including Black, Hispanic/Latinx/o/a, Asian and Asian American, Pacific Islander, and Native American
- Immigration and immigration status
- People with disabilities, including mental disorders
- People who are low-income and/or underserved
- Individuals who are LGBTQ+ and transgender

Capitalization

Use the dictionary. Capitalize words identified as “cap” or “usually cap” by Merriam-Webster's Collegiate® Dictionary, 11th ed. Lowercase words Merriam-Webster identifies as “often cap” or “sometimes cap.”

Colleges, departments, other university units

Capitalize full names of university units. Lowercase shortened names of university units.

- | | |

General Education Program

Capitalize the terms General Education Program and General Education (noun or adjective) when referring to the UI College of Liberal Arts and Sciences General Education Program.

Never abbreviate General Education Program.

[UI]

Government entities: city, state

Do not capitalize the words “state” and “city” unless part of a municipality’s proper name.

a city of Waterloo official	a Waterloo city official
the state of Iowa’s tax laws	Iowa’s state tax laws
the city of Dubuque tourism campaign	the conference in Kansas City

Hyphenated compounds and words in titles

In titles, the second part of a capitalized hyphenated compound should also be capitalized.

The All-Inclusive Workplace	Not: The All-inclusive Workplace
-----------------------------	----------------------------------

[UI]

Living learning communities

Uppercase names of specific university living learning communities. Lowercase “living learning” when it is not part of the community’s name or is used generically. “Living learning” is unhyphenated in all cases. [UI]

International Crossroads Community	Health Sciences Living Learning Community
Honors House	Honors House living learning community
Men in Engineering	Men in Engineering living learning community

To apply to live in one of the university’s living learning communities, students must file an on-campus housing application and contract.

Place names with compass points

Capitalize directional terms, including compass points and their compounds (e.g., North, South, East, West, Northwest, Western), when they are part of place names. Lowercase directional terms based on compass points. [AP]

Western Europe	the Middle East	the West	the Pacific Northwest
Southeast Asia	North Africa	western Iowa	the south of France
southern Asia	northern Africa	the northern states
Canada is north of the United States		go northwest

Prepositions

In uppercase-style titles, capitalize prepositions of five or more letters. [UI]

Proper nouns

Capitalize all proper nouns (names of a particular institution, organization, person, place, or thing).

Arkansas	Cheryl	Detroit	Mr. Billings
Prairie Lights Books	the Reformation	Monday	October
National Institutes of Public Health		Johnson County Historical Society

Do not capitalize a descriptive word that is added to a name or title but is not part of the true name or title.

Acceptable Use of Information Technology Resources policy

Lowercase shortened or inverted names of institutions, organizations, policies, and so forth.

National Institutes of Public Health the public health institutes

Johnson County Historical Society the county historical society

Conflicts of Commitment and Interest conflict of interest policy

Prohibition on Giving and Receiving Gifts gift policy

Office of Admissions admissions office

Office of the President president's office

Ranks and titles

In text, lowercase academic ranks and administrative titles standing alone or following a name.

The student may have this requirement waived with the approval of the graduate dean.

Margaret Smith, associate provost, opened the symposium.

The speaker was James A. Barnes, president of the company.

Avoid preceding a person's name with a long title. Instead, add the title, set off by commas, after the person's name.

John Smith, associate vice president for research, opened the symposium.

(Not: Associate Vice President for Research John Smith opened the symposium.)

Uppercase short titles that precede names or that are paired with last name only and/or are used in announcing or addressing a person. [UI]

Professor Marc P. Armstrong Professor Armstrong

Governor Kim Reynolds Governor Reynolds

President Barbara J. Wilson President Wilson

("Barbara Wilson" is acceptable on a name tag)

However, avoid using the capitalized title "Professor" in news stories.

Lowercase titles that are used descriptively rather than as part of a name. [UI] geography professor Marc P. Armstrong geography professors Armstrong and Rajagopal the late professor David R. Belgum the late professors Benton and Dixon

UI president Barbara J. Wilson former UI presidents Coleman and Skorton

Iowa governor Kim Reynolds U.S. president Joe Biden

Regents, Board of

On first reference, use "Board of Regents, State of Iowa."

On subsequent references, use "Iowa Board of Regents," "Board of Regents," or "Regents."

Always capitalize "Regents" (noun or adjective). [UI]

The motion was made at the September 2009 meeting of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa. After a brief discussion, the Regents passed the motion.

When writing about the institutions governed by the Board of Regents, do not use the term "Regents universities." Instead, use these terms:

Iowa’s public universities

Iowa’s public universities and special schools

The University of Iowa is one of three universities governed by the Board of Regents, State of Iowa.
(when referring specifically to UI)

[UI]

Room names

Lowercase “room” alone and when followed by a number. Uppercase “room” if it is part of a room’s name.

[UI]

The meeting is in room 245.

Lunch will be served in the State Room.

Scientific names of plants, animals

Capitalize phylum, class, order, family, and genus. Lowercase species. Italicize genus and species, but not phylum, class, order, or family. [see CMS 8.127–135]

Chordata (phylum)

Chondrichthyes (class)

Monotremata (order)

Hominidae (family)

Gleichenia glauca (genus and species)

Teacher Education Program

Capitalize “Teacher Education Program” in all references to the UI College of Education TEP. Write out Teacher Education Program on first reference; it may be abbreviated TEP in subsequent mentions. [UI]

“The” in names and titles

Lowercase “the” in text when it is the first word in the name of a formal name (e.g., company, institution, organization, publication, retail outlet or restaurant). [UI]

the McLaughlin Group

the McGraw-Hill Companies

the Fitness Zone

the Mill (restaurant)

Italicize and capitalize “the” in text when it is the first word in the italicized name of a book, film, television series, or other italicized title (except names of periodicals; see below).

The Sting (film)

The Red Tent (book)

The Sopranos (TV series)

The Marriage of Figaro (opera)

Capitalize “the” in text when it considered part of a periodical’s name. [AP]

The New Yorker

The Daily Iowan

Le Monde

Die Zeit

the Los Angeles Times the Miami Herald

The University of Iowa

“The” in “the University of Iowa” is always lowercase, unless at the beginning of a sentence.

Welcome to the University of Iowa.

Welcome to the University of Iowa campus.

Admission to the University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine is competitive.

Do not capitalize “university” standing alone.

The university was established in 1847.

[UI]

University organizations

Capitalize full names of official University of Iowa representative groups. Lowercase shortened references to such groups.

Faculty Senate

the senate

Staff Council

the council

Capitalize formal names of University of Iowa committees. Lowercase shortened references to such groups.

the Faculty Senate Budget Committee

the budget committee

[AP, UI]

Ellipses

Ellipses in text

Use three unspaced ellipsis points in place of omitted text. Do not add spaces between ellipses and their surrounding text. [UI]

Do not follow points with a period to indicate that the omitted material ended the sentence. However, the points may be preceded or followed by a comma, colon, semicolon, question mark, or exclamation point, if required to maintain the sense of the remaining material.

Capitalize the first word after the ellipses if it begins a grammatically complete sentence (even if the word was lowercase in the original). The capitalized first letter should be enclosed in brackets. [UI]

When omitting the first part of a quoted paragraph, use a paragraph indentation and ellipses before the first quoted word of the paragraph. [AP]

Add ellipses at the end of one paragraph to indicate that the next paragraph has been omitted. [UI]

Do not use ellipses before the first word or after the first word of a quotation, unless the sentence, as quoted, is deliberately incomplete. [AP]

Ellipses in display type, layout

Treatment of ellipses in display type is more flexible than in text and may vary according to design and editorial considerations.

Use of the ellipsis character (option + semicolon), rather than spaced ellipsis points, may be preferred.

Headlines

Generally, follow the same guidelines for grammar, editorial style, typography (italics, quotes), and so forth that are used for text. Adjustments may be made for graphic design and/or editorial considerations.

Capitalization of headlines/headings, subheadings

The University of Iowa strongly encourages the use of sentence case for headlines, headings, subheadings, et cetera—particularly for web products—though designers have license to use the capitalization of their choice, as circumstances require. [UI]

Decks

Divide decks at phrases. Do not end decks with prepositions.

New program is offered / for transfer students / from community colleges (decked at phrases)

Not: New program is offered for / transfer students from / community colleges (decked mid-phrase)

Hyphens/dashes in compounds

This section deals with the treatment of temporary compound constructions—those that join three or more words in a specific context. For permanent compounds, compounds documented in the dictionary as accepted usage, and words formed by the addition of prefixes, follow Merriam-Webster.

CMS 5.92–93 details compound modifiers (phrasal adjectives) and hyphenation.

CMS 6.85 discusses appropriate substitution of an en dash for a hyphen.

CMS 7.90 provides a guide for hyphenation of compounds, combining forms, and prefixes.

Adverbs ending in “ly”

Do not use a hyphen after an adverb ending in “ly” in compound constructions.

nicely done work

But: not-so-nicely-done work

Clarity

Use a hyphen in a compound modifier when needed for clarity, but not when the meaning is clear.

Big Ten athletics

high school student

civil service employee

study abroad courses

community college student

large-animal study

day care worker

small-business owner

free enterprise system

wide-open door

health care provider

Common element in series

Use hyphens in constructions containing two or more compounds that end in a common element, and omit the common element in all but the final term.

second- and third-year students

short- and long-term goals

Use hyphens in constructions containing two or more compounds that begin with a common element, and retain the common element in each compound.

recipe for a fast-rising, fast-baking bread (Not: recipe for a fast-rising, -baking bread)

En dash in place of hyphen

Use an en dash (option + hyphen) instead of a hyphen in a compound adjective that includes one or more open compounds or two hyphenated compounds.

En dash before or after an open compound (“World War I” and “Pulitzer Prize”):

Her diary included little from the pre–World War I years.

He is a Pulitzer Prize–winning novelist.

En dash between two open compounds (“health insurance” and “home care”):

It was a health insurance–home care conundrum.

En dash between two permanent hyphenated compounds (“self-evaluation” and “self-treatment”):

The institute promotes self-evaluation–self-treatment skills.

Use an en dash when a compound adjective contains a discrete hyphenated compound:

The author made reference to an e-book–publishing cartel.

[More: CMS 6.80–81, 6.85]

En dash with inclusive dates and numbers

Use an en dash (option + hyphen) instead of a hyphen in inclusive dates, times, and numbers. [UI; also see “Numbers” below.]

The picnic will be held 3–6 p.m. They published the 2015–16 edition on time.

Budget items ranged $50–$3,500. We were asked to choose 15–20 items.

The 2007 Iowa State Fair was held Aug. 9–19.

Winter and spring semesters ran Aug. 27, 2007–May 16, 2008.

Nationalities with “American(s)”

Compounds referring to groups of combined nationalities that include “American(s)” should be open, not hyphenated, in both noun and adjective form. [UI]

African American(s)

African American cuisine

Asian American(s)

Asian American ancestry

Latin American(s)

Latin American curriculum

Numbers

Use a hyphen in compound constructions containing a numerical first element that acts as an adjective.

first-year student

fourth-quarter touchdown

20th-century literature

But: three-quarter–time graduate assistantship

Do not hyphenate a numeral and the word “percent,” even as an adjective.

10 percent increase

75 percent of students

Do not hyphenate a numeral used with an abbreviation. Use a space between the numeral and abbreviation. [UI]

5 lb. weight

8 ft. rope

2 s.h. course

Hyphenate simple fractions. In combinations of whole numbers and fractions, do not hyphenate after the whole number. [UI]

one-quarter

three-eighths

five and eight-tenths miles

Italics in text

Emphasis

Do not use italics for emphasis.
Exception: Italics may be used in a quote to indicate the speaker's emphasis.

She replied, "No, I won't go!"

Foreign words

Do not italicize commonly used foreign words.

in vivo in vitro ex officio a priori

Less familiar foreign words may be italicized.

l'amour courtois americanismo literario

When using common and less familiar foreign words together, treat them alike (both italic, or both Roman).

[UI]

Headlines, other display type

Italics may be used in headlines and display type; use the same guidelines as for italics in text. Adjustments may be made for design and/or editorial considerations. Single quotation marks may be substituted in headlines if italicization isn't possible. [UI, AP]

Legal cases

Italicize the abbreviated names of legal cases, but set the full name in Roman text. [CMS 14.288]

Swift v. Tyson the Swift case In Swift, the jury decided against the plaintiff.

Reference to a word or term

Generally, use italics when referring to a word or term. However, in some cases quotes should be used instead of italics. [UI]

What does informatics mean?

He tended to say "no" more often than "yes" or "maybe."

She decided not to italicize "In vitro" since it's a common foreign term.

Exception: Do not use italics (or quotes) when the referenced term is preceded by "so-called." [UI]

The so-called ingénue was more worldly than her admirers had realized.

Scientific names of plants, animals

Italicize genus and species, but not phylum, class, order, or family. Capitalize genus, lowercase species. [UI; also see "Capitalization" section, above.]

Gleichenia glauca (genus and species)

"The" in titles

Italicize and capitalize "The" when it is the first word in the italicized name of a book, film, television series, or other italicized title (except names of periodicals; see below).

The Sting (film)

The Red Tent (book)

The Sopranos (TV series)

The Marriage of Figaro (opera)

Capitalize "The" as the first word of the name of a periodical if it is part of the periodical's full formal name. [AP]

The New Yorker

The Daily Iowan

Le Monde

Die Zeit

but

the Los Angeles Times the Chicago Tribune

Titles as parts of names

Do not italicize a publication name that is part of the name of a scholarship, prize, building, organizations, et cetera. [UI]

She received a Daily Iowan Scholarship.

His book made The New York Times Best Seller list.

Titles in text

See “Titles: Format list” below to determine how a title in text should be formatted (italics, quotes, etc.).

Nationalities

Compounds with “American(s)”

Compounds referring to groups of combined nationalities that include “American(s)” should be open, not hyphenated, in both noun and adjective form. [UI]

African American(s)

African American cuisine

Asian American(s)

Asian American ancestry

Latin American(s)

Latin American curriculum

Chicano, Hispanic, Latino

Generally, use “Hispanic” (the official U.S. government category). Exception: use “Chicano” or “Latino” and their gender and number variations, as appropriate, depending on the preference of the person or group in question.

“Chicano”: U.S. Latino immigrants or citizens of Mexican origin

“Latino” connotes more cultural consciousness of ethnicity than does “Hispanic.”

Latino studies deals with the Americas.

Hispanic studies includes people from the Iberian Peninsula (Castile, Catalonia, the Basque Country, Galicia, Portugal, etc.) as well as Latinos. [Tom Lewis, professor of Spanish and Portuguese, July 2007]

Native American

Generally, use “Native American” (the term most commonly used on the U.S. government website) rather than “American Indian.” Other terms on the government web site include Indian tribal entities, Native American tribes, tribal organizations, tribal councils, tribal governments. [U.S. gov website 2010]

Numbers

Spell out numbers nine and under; use figures for numbers 10 and above. [AP]

Do not follow a spelled-out number with a figure in parentheses.

Express large round numbers through thousands in numerals. [AP]

1,500 40,000 396,000

Use a combination of numerals and words to express round numbers in the millions and higher.

2 million 4.7 million 9 million 22 million
986 million 4 billion

Use commas in figures of four or more digits. (Exceptions: address numbers, year numbers, serial numbers, and other numbers that do not require commas)

Spell out all numbers that begin sentences in text. (Exceptions may be made for callouts or in marketing materials that require an eye-catching numeral—but exercise caution.)

Avoid beginning sentences with numbers that are awkward to spell out.

Numbers applied to the same category or series should be treated alike in a paragraph; do not use figures for some and spell out others. Use the treatment that applies to the majority of figures in the category: If more of the figures are 10 or above, then use figures to represent all of them, but if more are below 10, spell all of them out. Exceptions by context. [UI]

The class included 13 students from Iowa, 2 from Kansas, and 16 from Missouri.

The instructor had spent seven years in India, twelve in Japan, and five in Sumatra.

Age

Always use numerals when expressing age. [AP] an 87-year-old woman the child is 6 months old the building is 7 years old an 8-month-old dog

Assistantships

Use the following format when referring to part-time graduate assistants or assistantships. [UI]

one-quarter-time graduate assistant(ship) five-eighths-time graduate assistant(ship)

Centuries

Spell out centuries one through nine lowercase. Use Arabic numerals for 10th and subsequent centuries. [AP]

third century ninth century 10th century 17th century

Do not hyphenate between number and century when used as a noun. Hyphenate between “mid” and number of century, but not “late” or “early.”

We live in the 21st century. He studied literature of the mid-19th century.
She died in the late 19th century. The union was formed in the early 20th century.

Hyphenate between number and century when used as an adjective. Hyphenate after “mid” in adjective form, but do not hyphenate after “early” or “late” in adjective form. [UI]

Put away your 20th-century calendars. We studied early 19th-century literature.
He was a mid-20th-century scholar. The original late 17th-century recipe had been lost.

Do not use superscript.

21st century (Not: 21st century)

Do not use an apostrophe when expressing a century in numerals.

the 1900s (Not: 1900's)

Decades

Decades may be expressed in numerals; they may be spelled out when the century is clear. [UI]

the 1950s (no apostrophe) the '50s the fifties

Decimals and ciphers

Do not use decimals and ciphers in figures indicating even dollar amounts. [AP]

$12 (Not: $12.00)

Do not use unnecessary colons and ciphers in figures indicating time of day.

7 a.m. (Not: 7:00 a.m.)

Use “noon” or “midnight.” Do not use “12 noon” or “12 midnight.” Do not use “12 a.m.” or “12 p.m.”

Grade-point average

Always express grade-point average (GPA) with one numeral before the decimal and two after the decimal, even when one or both numerals after the decimal are zeros. [UI]

a grade-point average of 3.25 a 2.70 GPA a 3.00 GPA

Hyphenation

Use a hyphen in compound constructions containing a numerical first element that acts as an adjective. (Use an “en” dash to join a third element to an already-hyphenated compound.)

first-year student fourth-quarter touchdown
20th-century literature three-quarter-time graduate assistantship

Do not hyphenate a numeral and the word “percent,” even as an adjective.

10 percent increase 75 percent of students

Do not hyphenate a numeral used with an abbreviation. Use space between numeral and abbreviation. [UI]

5 lb. weight 8 ft. rope 2 s.h. course 2 qt. bottle

Hyphenate simple fractions. In combinations of whole numbers and fractions, do not hyphenate after the whole number.

one-quarter three-eighths five and eight-tenths miles

[UI]

Inclusive dates and numbers

Abbreviated style: use an en-dash (“–”; option + hyphen) to show a range of dates or numbers expressed in numerals. Do not use a hyphen.

We were asked to choose 15–20 items.
Winter and spring semesters run Aug. 27, 2007–May 16, 2008.

Written style: always follow “from” with “to,” and “between” with “and.”

We were asked to choose from 15 to 20 items.
Winter and spring semesters run from Aug. 27, 2007 to May 16, 2008.

Use the written style with spelled-out numbers.

You'll have from five to seven choices.
(Not: You'll have five–seven choices.)

Never mix the two styles (abbreviated and written).

You'll have between 10 and 20 choices.

Budget items ranged from $50 to $3,500.
Budget items ranged $50–$3,500.
(Not: Budget items ranged from $50–$3,500.)

The picnic will be held from 3 to 6 p.m.
The picnic will be held 3–6 p.m.
(Not: The picnic will be held from 3–6 p.m.)

The 2007 Iowa State Fair was held from Aug. 9 to 19.
The 2007 Iowa State Fair was held Aug. 9–19.
(Not: The 2007 Iowa State Fair was held from Aug. 9–19.)

Money

Use a combination of numerals and words for all round sums of money expressed in millions and higher.

$0.3 million $3.8 million $5 billion

Ordinals

Spell out ordinals below 10; use figures for 10 and above. [AP]

She was the fourth person to complete all of the questions.

They recently celebrated their 45th anniversary.

Do not use ordinals after figures in dates.

June 10 (Not: June 10th)

Do not use superscript in ordinals.

21st century (Not: 21st century)

[UI]

Percent

Use numerals to express percent. Use the percent symbol (%); do not insert a space between the numeral and the symbol. Some design requirements may necessitate the use of the percentage symbol. [UI]

8%

Rankings

When rankings use the word “number” followed by a number, abbreviate the word (uppercase) and use an Arabic numeral. [AP]

the No. 2 book his No. 3 choice the team kept its No. 4 ranking

Semester hours

Use numerals to express number of semester hours. When a sentence begins with a number of semester hours, write out the number. Try to avoid beginning a sentence with a number of semester hours. [UI]

Students must earn 9 semester hours in advanced math courses.

Nine semester hours are required.
(Not: 9 semester hours are required.)
(Rewrite: The requirement is 9 semester hours.)

Telephone numbers

Include the area code in all telephone numbers. Separate the area code from the following seven digits with a hyphen. Do not precede the area code with “1” unless necessary (e.g., in publications for prospective international students). [UI]

For media inquiries, call 319-356-3945.

Use all numbers, rather than a combination of numbers and letters, since letters and numbers may correspond differently on varied electronic devices.

Call the Office of Admissions toll free at 800-553-4692. (Not: 800-553-IOWA)

Time: noon, midnight

Write out “noon” and “midnight.” Do not use “12 a.m.” or “12 p.m.” Do not use “12 noon” or “12 midnight.” [UI]

Online style

Website names

Names of websites generally are Roman and in title case. [UI]

Publication website names generally are italic.

Use the website’s own formatting of its name; go online to check the website’s flag, then scan the first page to spot inconsistencies and determine the site’s most common formatting of its own name.

In a site’s name, use the word “Online” uppercase only if it is part of the site’s formatting of its own name.

If the word “online” (lowercase) is not part of the site’s name, add it only to distinguish the online version of a publication from the print version. Do not italicize it.

Add “.com” only if it is part of the web site’s formatting of its name.

hawkeyesports.com (“.com” is in flag) Salon (“.com” no longer in flag)

MSNBC (no “.com” in flag) WebMD (no space)

YouTube (no space) USA Today

eBay (eBay’s flag has a lowercase “B,” but other references on eBay’s first page cap the “B.”)

URLs

Use consistent typography for URLs throughout a publication or family of publications (e.g., always bold, always in a different typeface, or always in a specific color).

Do not underline URLs; underlining may obscure the underscore characters in a URL.

Preserve the URL’s original uppercase/lowercase; some URLs are case sensitive.

Do not include “http://” or “www.” in URLs.

Drop the ending slash of a URL.

When a line breaks mid-URL, never add a hyphen at the break. Break URLs as follows:

- After a double or single slash
- Before a comma, hyphen, number sign, percent symbol, period, question mark, tilde, or underline
- Before or after an ampersand or equal sign

Never enclose URLs in angle brackets (<URL>).

When a URL comes at the end of a sentence, follow it with a period to end the sentence.

Visit the University of Iowa online at uiowa.edu.

[UI]

Proprietary marks

Copyright, trademark, service mark

The symbol for copyright is © (option + g in Microsoft Word); (c) or (C) also may be used. Use of the copyright symbol in text is rare.

The symbol for trademark is ™ (option + 2) or ® (option + r).

Microsoft Word does not yet have a key command for the service mark symbol, which is SM (superscript).

Omit the service mark and trademark symbols in text (there is no legal requirement to use them). Instead, capitalize registered brand names, unless their formal registered name begins with a lowercase letter (e.g., eBay, iMac).

For more information on copyright, service mark, and trademark, see The Associated Press Stylebook, the Chicago Manual of Style (consult the index), Wikipedia, and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office website (uspto.gov).

Brand names and generic terms

Use a brand name in text only if referring to the specific brand; otherwise, substitute a generic term. When in doubt, check Merriam-Webster, which notes trademark. [UI]

Bufferin (buffered aspirin)

Jacuzzi (whirlpool bath)

Kleenex (tissue)

Ping-Pong (table tennis)

Vaseline (petroleum jelly)

Xerox (photocopy)

Punctuation

Colons and capitalization

Material following a colon should be capitalized only if it is an independent clause. [AP]

When the colon introduces speech or dialogue, cap the first word after the colon.

Colon in display type

In headlines, capitalize the first word after a colon. In other display type, capitalize after colon according to design and/or editorial considerations.

Comma in series

Use a final (serial, Oxford) comma in a series of three or more elements. [UI]

books, journals, and articles

Comma with adjectives

Use a comma between multiple adjectives that precede a noun.

a new, challenging assignment

a tailored, dark-colored tunic

Exception: When the noun and the adjective that precedes it form a unit, do not use a comma before the preceding adjective.

a quiet little boy

a cold soft drink

a soft, brown, fuzzy stuffed bear (no comma after “fuzzy” since “stuffed bear” is a unit)

[UI]

Comma with expressions

Expressions such as “that is,” “namely,” “for example,” “i.e.,” and “e.g.” should usually be set off from surrounding text with commas. [UI] (See “Abbreviations: Expressions: i.e., e.g.” for a full explanation of the use of “i.e.,” “e.g.,” and “etc.”)

Comma with year

Use a comma after the year in a complete date that appears in continuing text.

He received his appointment June 10, 1998, and was promoted a year later.

Do not use a comma before or after the year when only a month and year are used.

He announced his team’s discovery at the August 2007 meeting of the UFO Search Society.

[UI]

Letter grades

Letter grades in text are uppercase with no additional punctuation. [UI]

Write out “plus” and “minus” and precede with hyphen. [UI]

Her first-semester grades included two As, two Bs, and one C.

Students must have a B-plus average to remain in the program.

His earned an A-minus in the course.

Quote marks in quotations

Quoted words, phrases, and sentences used in text should be enclosed in double quote marks. (Use single quotes in headlines.)

Use single quote marks to enclose quotations within quotations.

[AP, UI]

Quote marks with titles

See “Titles: Format list” section below to determine how to format a title in text (italics, quotes, etc.).

Quote marks with other punctuation

Commas and periods always go inside closing quote marks.

Colons and semicolons always go outside closing quote marks.

Question marks and exclamation points go outside closing quote marks, unless they belong to the quoted material.

[UI]

Reference to a word or term

Use quotation marks when referring to a word or term, especially one that is quoted (written or spoken).

[UI]

We have guidelines for using “e.g.” and “etc.”

Our style guide helps us determine whether to write “theater” or “theatre.”

Semicolon in a series

Use semicolons to separate elements in a series that contain internal punctuation (usually commas) or that are long and/or complex. [UI]

The committee consisted of three researchers from the Czech Republic; three audiologists, including the distinguished professor emerita, from Brazil; and a team of five speleologists, eight microbiologists, and two paleontologists from Greece.

Typography of punctuation

All punctuation marks should appear in the same type style as the main text (usually Roman or “normal”), unless the punctuation mark belongs to material that is set off in a different type style (usually italic or bold).

The Martha-Ellen Tye Opera Theater will stage Viva La Mama!
(Exclamation point is part of opera title, so it is italic.)

I can’t believe I slept through Lord of the Rings!
(Exclamation point is not part of movie title, so it is not italic.)

Exception: When a phrase or sentence in parentheses or brackets appears on a line by itself, set the parentheses or brackets in the same type style as the text they enclose.

[More: CMS 6.3–7]

Required statements

The following statements must be included in publications, as appropriate. [UI Operations Manual 20.9]

Job number and publication date

Insert the job number and publication date (month and year) at the end of the nondiscrimination statement. Type font, style, and size should match the statement. Follow the job number with an en dash and separate month and two-digit year with a slash. [UI]

...202 Jessup Hall, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242-1316. 75996–7/09

Nondiscrimination statement

The official UI nondiscrimination statement must be used in all publications describing education programs (including continuing education and conferences) and all publications recruiting people for employment, enrollment, or participation in educational programs. Use this wording, without any changes.

The University of Iowa prohibits discrimination in employment, educational programs, and activities on the basis of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or associational preference. The university also affirms its commitment to providing equal opportunities and equal access to university facilities. For additional information on nondiscrimination policies, contact the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity, 319-335-0705 (voice) and 319-335-0697 (text), 202 Jessup Hall, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242-1316.

Personally identifiable information

Include this notice in publications requesting personally identifiable information from individuals (information other than what appears in the university directory). This policy conforms to the Code of Iowa, Chapter 22. The notice should state why the information is being requested; whether it will be disclosed outside the university, and if so, to whom; which elements of the requested information are optional; and what is likely to happen if the individual does not provide the requested information. The statement must be tailored to the publication; here are examples of how the statement could read.

The University of Iowa requests this information for the purpose of processing registration and CEU records. No persons outside the university are routinely provided this information. Responses to items marked 'optional' are optional; responses to all other items are required. If you fail to provide the required information, the university may be unable to process your registration and CEU records.

The university requests this information so we can tell you more about studying at Iowa. We do not routinely disclose this information with persons outside the university. We may not be able to fulfill your request without your complete contact information.

Recycled paper logo

All UI publications printed on recycled paper must include the recycled paper logo developed by the Iowa Department of Natural Resources and a statement that the cover and/or inside pages of the publication are printed on recycled paper. Contact the University of Iowa Printing Department for copies of the logo.

Titles: People and things

Also see "Abbreviations" and "Capitalization" sections above.

Administrative appointments, faculty rank

When referring to faculty members who also are administrators, the faculty rank goes first.

David F. Wiemer, professor and chair of chemistry

Exception: For the UI president, vice presidents, and deans, the administrative rank goes first.

P. Barry Butler, dean of the College of Engineering and professor of mechanical engineering

Exception: When context makes the administrative rank most relevant, it should be stated first.

John Smith, president of the Faculty Senate, described the senate's resolution as courageous. Smith, professor of chemistry, had urged the group to take a bold step.

Avoid preceding a person's name with a long title. Instead, add the title, set off by commas, after the person's name.

John Smith, associate vice president for research, opened the symposium.
(Not: Associate Vice President for Research John Smith opened the symposium.)

[UI]

Collegiate affiliations

When writing about a faculty member, try to include the subject's collegiate affiliation(s) and his or her departmental affiliation(s). Do the same thing when writing about a department, program, or other academic unit. [UI]

Thomas H. Charlton, professor of anthropology in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Sarah England, associate professor of molecular physiology and biophysics in the Carver College of Medicine (or UI Carver College of Medicine)

The Department of Mathematics, in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, has once again won national acclaim for its work to recruit graduate students from underrepresented populations.

In affiliation statements that mention either of the two named colleges, drop the given name portion of the college's name and use only the surname portion. [UI]

Carver College of Medicine

(Not: Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine)

Tippie College of Business

(Not: Henry B. Tippie College of Business)

Department heads

When referring to leaders of departments and programs, use “chair,” “director,” or “head” rather than “department chair,” “program director,” “program head,” and so forth. Often, the title will be “departmental executive officer,” which may be shortened to “DEO” in subsequent references. [UI]

Faculty: emeritus/emerita

When referring to faculty members who are emeriti, place the proper form of “emeritus” after—not before—the faculty member’s rank. [CMS 8.31]

Marilynne Robinson, professor emerita of English
(Not: Marilynne Robinson, emerita professor of English)

Professor Emerita Marilynne Robinson
(Not: Emerita Professor Marilynne Robinson)

Willard L. “Sandy” Boyd, UI president emeritus
(Not: Willard L. “Sandy” Boyd, UI emeritus president; Not: ...emeritus UI president)

Use the form of “emeritus” that is appropriate to gender and number.

emerita (female singular)

emeritus (male singular)

emeritae (female plural)

emeriti (male plural or mixed male and female plural)

Never refer to professors emeriti as “retired”; simply say “professor emeritus” (or “emerita”), not “retired professor emeritus” (or “emerita”).

In rare cases, staff members hold emeritus status; the same rules of form apply.

F.X. Cretzmeyer, track coach emeritus.

Faculty: named positions

Many faculty members hold named positions, usually a chair or professorship. Consult the University of Iowa Foundation for clarification regarding specific named positions.

Include the full name of the appointment when identifying the faculty member in stories and other text. The appointment name should follow the faculty member’s name and should be uppercase.

Do not repeat the faculty member’s department name if the appointment name makes it obvious. Include the faculty member’s college.

Dorothy Johnson is the Roy J. Carver Professor of Art History in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.
(Not: Dorothy Johnson is the Roy J. Carver Professor of Art History in the School of Art and Art History, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.)

Or: Dorothy Johnson, the Roy J. Carver Professor of Art History in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, . . .

Nancy R. Hauserman, the Williams Teaching Professor in the Department of Management and Organizations, Tippie College of Business, . . .

William C. Hunter, the Henry B. Tippie Dean, Tippie College of Business, . . .

If the word “Chair” is part of the named position, state that the faculty member holds the named position.

Charles H. Whiteman, who holds the Stanley M. Howe Chair in Leadership in the Department of Economics, . . .

Charles H. Whiteman holds the Stanley M. Howe Chair in Leadership in the Department of Economics.

Also include other pertinent elements of identification (e.g., the fact that the professor is a department head, or holds an administrative appointment, or holds a joint appointment in another college).

[UI]

Hyphenated compounds in titles

In titles, the second part of a hyphenated compound should be capitalized.

The All-Inclusive Workplace

[UI]

Names: Jr., Sr., II

The abbreviations Jr., Sr., II, III, and IV are used only with a complete name and are not preceded by a comma [UI].

Hal Brown Sr.

Robert Belson II

Jim McGraw Jr.

But: Professor Belson

Names: Doctor, Dr.

Because Iowa is both an academic institution and a medical center, avoid using “Doctor X” or “Dr. X.” Refraining from the use of these constructions prevents confusion between MDs, PhDs, and those who hold other types of doctoral degree. It also minimizes unnecessary repetition in documents that include references to a large number of people who hold such degrees.

Instead, include a brief aside describing the subject’s credentials.

Smith, who earned a PhD in astrophysics from the University of Arkansas . . .

Jones, a cardiologist at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics . . .

[UI]

“The” in names and titles

Lowercase “the” in text when it is the first word in the name of a formal name (e.g., company, institution, organization, publication, retail outlet or restaurant). [UI]

the McLaughlin Group

the McGraw-Hill Companies

the Fitness Zone

the Mill (restaurant)

Italicize and capitalize “the” in text when it is the first word in the italicized name of a book, film, television series, or other italicized title (except names of periodicals; see below).

The Sting (film)

The Red Tent (book)

The Sopranos (TV series)

The Marriage of Figaro (opera)

Capitalize “the” in text when it is the first word of a periodical’s name. [CMS 8.180]

The UI: Referring to the university (the University of Iowa, “Iowa,” “the UI”)

Space permitting, always refer to “the University of Iowa” on first reference. On second reference, consider the location and scope of your audience:

Locally, many people know that “the UI” refers to the University of Iowa. Alumni will also make the connection. However, if your content will be read by an audience further afield or less familiar with the university, use “Iowa” as a second reference. If doing so creates the potential for conflation with the state of Iowa, use “the UI.”

These situations are often unique cases, so use your best judgement.

Note: Always add “the” before “UI” when used as a noun. “UI” alone is acceptable adjectivally. Ex:

the UI

UI researchers

Do not use “U Iowa/UIowa.” See “Words and Spelling” (p. 34) for more information.

Titles as parts of names

Do not italicize a publication name that is part of the name of a scholarship, prize, building, organizations, et cetera. [UI]

She received a Daily Iowan Scholarship.

Titles: Format list

Titles require varied typesetting formats (italic, quotes, etc.). The following guidelines apply to titles in regular text; formats may vary in display type, tabular material, and so forth.

uc = uppercase (capitalized / cap or capped / “up” style)

lc = lowercase (not capitalized / “down” style)

uc/lc = mixed uppercase and lowercase

Titles are uppercase/lowercase (uc/lc) unless noted otherwise (that is, major words are capitalized; this is sometimes called “up style”). Note: Exceptions may be made for graphic design considerations.

Words and spelling

Spelling guidelines

Follow Merriam-Webster's Collegiate® Dictionary, 11th ed., to determine correct spelling in cases such as these.

- First spelling for words that have alternate spellings
- Main spelling rather than “variation of...” (separate listings)
- Compounds: one word or two? hyphenated?
- Words with prefixes: hyphenated?
- Words with suffixes: drop the final “e” and double the final consonant, or not?
- Plural form of a word
- Accents in foreign words

Some words and phrases

In the following list, an asterisk indicates that the word is not listed in Merriam-Webster, or that University Relations Publications treats the word differently than does Merriam-Webster.

- uc = uppercase (capitalized / cap or capped / “up” style)
- lc = lowercase (not capitalized / “down” style)
- uc/lc = mixed uppercase and lowercase
